Mullet's R E W A R D

I take pride in a trout
Caught fair without doubt
Or a salmon tailed ever just so;
But at times on the stream
Pesky perch, chub or bream
Are more willing to give flies a go.

Now it's not that I mind
A wee fish on the line
They fight like the dickens, you know;
But one sly relative
Put small fish to negative
Snapshot mullet just never will grow.

I devised a quick plan
And poured him The Macall-an
Incentive to give up the photo;
But year after year
I must ply him with cheer
Sweet blackmail, seems it ever shall flow!
